Quote from a faroies chain dance theme "In faroe Island lived brave men"

Mykines

í havsbrúnni hómast eldhavið kringsett av krunkamyrkri døggin vætir hvørt strá og mínar tær

og vátt er hált ytst á eggini á forbergi vindurin ríkir og rýkur um lókur og oysir í oyrað seggja søgur

um máttmiklar menn í fyrndini fello
sær stinn

ósnott ótt ótta heimgongu og hita

Mikines by Halldur Suni Johansen

In the horizon you faintly see an ocean on fire Surrounded by a pitch deep darkness

There is dew on every straw
An on my toes
And it is wet and slippery Right on the edge of the promontery

The wind blows in the slopes
And fills my ear
Sagas of sturdy men Who fell in foregone days

Unsafe I feel a vague fear
On my way home to a warm dwelling

Mikines is a small island of the Faeroe Islands
the most western one
